A Long History

悠久歷史

Founded in Guangzhou in 1947, Hong Kong Chu Hai College was registered as a university with the Ministry of Education and named Chu Hai University. It is the oldest post-secondary college in Hong Kong with degree-granting qualifications. More than 70 years ago, after the victory of the Anti-Japanese War, the University was established to build the society and cultivate talents. The name “Chu Hai” (literally means Pearl-Sea) was coined to allude to the students to be as bright and pure as pearls and also as an inspiration for them to pursue knowledge till the depth of the ocean. At the time of the College’s opening, there were over one thousand students and 11 departments under the Faculties of Arts, Science, Law and Business. In 1948, the campus of Chu Hai was located on Xiaobei Dengfeng Road, a road must be taken to reach the “First Peak of Tiannan” — Baiyun Mountain.

In 1949, Chu Hai University moved to Hong Kong, registered and renamed as Chu Hai College under the Hong Kong Education Ordinance. Adhering to its philosophy of education, it has since been providing four-year tertiary programmes for secondary school graduates, to cultivate socially responsible leaders with both talent and virtue.

廣州竹絲崗「珠海大學」校舍

香港珠海學院於1947年在廣州創校，在國家教育部註冊為大學，取名珠海大學，是香港歷史最悠久具有學位頒授資格的認可專上學院。

40年代末期正是抗日戰爭勝利後，創立珠海大學旨在建設社會、培育人才，取名「珠海」蓋其學生若「珠」之晶瑩璀璨，如「海」之浩蘊深藏。大學開學時學生已達千人，設文、理及法商學院共11個學系。1948年校舍設於小北登峰路，為登上白雲山「天南第一峰」必經之路。

1949年，珠海大學遷校香港，按香港教育條例立案註冊，易名為珠海書院，秉承一貫的辦學理念，為高中畢業生提供四年制的專上課程，培育才德兼備，有守有為的社會棟樑。

1949年遷港後旺角洗衣街校舍

1961年旺角亞皆老街124號校舍

As the College was registered with the Ministry of Education of the Republic of China in the autumn of 1947, it was the second largest comprehensive university in Hong Kong after its relocation in 1949, ranked just after the University of Hong Kong. It was also the only university in mainland China to have moved to Hong Kong. The university diploma and degree were issued by the Ministry of Education of the Republic of China, which was internationally recognized, allowing students to further their studies in Europe, America, Canada, and other countries.

In 2004, Chu Hai College was registered under the Post-secondary Colleges Ordinance (Cap. 320), and became a college in Hong Kong. It was approved by the Chief Executive of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region and the Executive Council to offer degree programmes after accreditation and to award degrees.

1972年，位於亞皆老街113號校舍

因1947秋在中華民國教育部立案註冊，珠海遷徙香港之後，成為當時除香港大學外另一所最具規模的綜合性大學，亦是唯一由國內遷校到香港的大學。學生之珠海大學畢業證書與學位由中華民國教育部頒發，前往歐、美、加等外國深造皆得認受。

2004年，珠海學院根據香港專上學院條例註冊成立，成為法例第320章所認可的學院。學院獲香港特區行政長官會同行政會議批准，開辦經評審的學位課程，並可頒授學位。

Land acquired from the Hong Kong Government

Chu Hai College was granted land for a new campus in Tuen Mun by the Hong Kong Education Bureau. It is located in the tranquil and picturesque area of Tuen Mun's Castle Peak Bay. The new campus offers various modern designs and facilities for teaching, learning, and research.

Mission of Higher Education

To keep up with the development of the knowledge-based economy in the 21st century, the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region government has set education goals and reform plans for the 21st century. The Board of Governors of the College has actively cooperated with these goals to further shoulder the mission of higher education in Hong Kong, by cultivating talents for the society, hence to increase Hong Kong's international competitiveness and enhance individuals' quality, building a stable, harmonious, progressive and prosperous society.

為配合二十一世紀知識型經濟的發展脈動，香港特區政府制定二十一世紀的教育目標和改革藍圖。本校校董會亦積極作出相應配合，進一步為香港肩負高等教育的使命，培育社會專才，以增加本港的國際競爭能力和提升個人質素，創造穩定和諧與進步繁榮的社會。

Starting a New Chapter

Since spring 2021, Xiamen ITG Education Group Co., Ltd., a fully-owned subsidiary of Fujian state-owned enterprise Xiamen ITG Holding Group Co., Ltd., has taken over the operations of the College. This landmark move has represented the first instance of mainland Chinese state-owned enterprises entering the field of education in Hong Kong, and has been considered an innovative model for education under the framework of “One Country, Two Systems”. Since winter of 2022, the College has been renamed Hong Kong Chu Hai College and has continued to adhere to its original mission with its profound historical heritage. It will be striving for the future of the education sector in Hong Kong. Its goal is to become a comprehensive liberal arts university that focuses on humanities, science, and business, and to foster creativity and innovation.

Hong Kong Chu Hai College is engaging in diligent efforts to upgrade to a university, and has recently entered a new era with a revitalized and innovative atmosphere. The College’s new name and emblem, inspired by the motto “COGNITIO ET INTEGRITAS”, embody its vision of being rooted in Hong Kong, relying on the motherland, connecting with Greater China, and facing the world. This unique position in the Hong Kong education sector marks a significant milestone for the College, as it moves forward into a new era of development.

2021年春，福建國企廈門國貿控股集團的全資子公司廈門國貿教育集團承接學院，創內地國資進入香港辦學首舉，也是「一國兩制」下香港教育的創新模式。學院於翌年冬易名為香港珠海學院，繼續秉承辦學初心，與厚重的歷史底蘊，為本港教育界未來砥礪奮進，目標發展成為文、理、商並重，具有創造力的綜合博雅型大學。

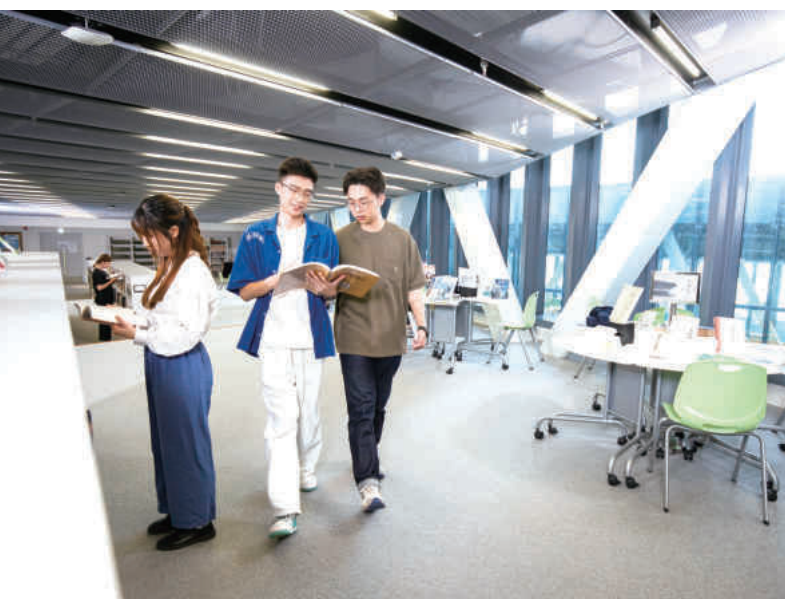

升格大學，未來可期，踏入新時期的香港珠海學院，煥發全新氣象。新校名配合彰顯「求智珠、通四海」校訓的新校徽，體現學院「立足香港、依託祖國、連接大中華、面向全世界」的願景，標誌學院在香港教育界的獨特定位，承前啟後，邁向新里程。

Since 1949, the year of foundation of Hong Kong Chu Hai College, the Department of Civil Engineering has been offering civil engineering programmes to equip students with in-depth knowledge and practical training for pursuing a career in the civil engineering and construction industry. In the past years, more than 1,500 students graduated from the programme. Over the years, our graduates have made tremendous contribution to the industry in various capacities. In particular, the outstanding achievements of our graduates in the field of structural engineering, especially related to the construction of the world's renown bridges, reflect the success of the Department.

The present day of Hong Kong Chu Hai College was registered in 2004 as an approved Post-secondary College by the Chief Executive in Council (of the Hong Kong SAR Government) with degree-awarding authority, has successfully launched initially seven accredited honours degree programmes. The civil engineering profession is at a crossroads as we enter the 21st century. Emphases on some aspects are shifting. In addition to the emphasis on massive infrastructure developments, growing concern has been expressed over maintenance and revitalization. Similarly, sustainable development and environmental awareness have considerably expanded the role and functions of civil engineering. Furthermore, with the advancement of digital technology, it is essential for modern civil engineers to acquire knowledge of innovation and technology developed in other related disciplines for improving safety and cost effectiveness. Keeping up with these changes and looking ahead, the Department continues to enhance its curriculum to better suit the current needs of the industry.

Language / Putonghua Training and Testing Centre

普通話教學暨測試中心

香港的中學生，畢業後，有些人會立即投入就業市場；大學畢業生就更需要立即就業。由於回歸以後，香港和內地的互動較之前頻繁許多，和臺灣的關係也日益密切，但無論內地和臺灣，都是使用普通話。香港年輕人如不能極速增進普通話的能力，恐怕就業機會會受到影響。因此，本校設立「普通話教學暨測試中心」，目的在於協助香港年輕人，在求職之前，先充實自己的普通話能力。

在內地，雖然各省各地都有方言，但由於普通話推廣成功，全國各地的人，都能透過普通話溝通。然而，目前全中國，只有香港這個地方，無法以普通話作為溝通的主要語言。因此，希望借著年輕人普遍學習普通話，而帶動香港說普通話的風氣。

據此，本校於2010年5月13日，正式成立「普通話教學暨測試中心」，並與北京國家語委會的「普通話教學暨測試中心」簽訂了合作協定。本中心現名為普通話教學暨測試中心，成立十三年來，已舉辦了十四屆國家普通話水平測試，與國家語委合作培養了多位國家級普通話水平測試員，開辦過全校性的普通話應用課程及考前講座。中心也常常參與或舉辦全港的各項相關會議及賽事，致力於普通話教學、測試及推廣活動。

活動

2016年10月，香港「國家普通話測試推廣20周年紀念活動」由全港多達13所專上學校的普通話教學和測試中心共同參與並慶祝，紀念活動包括紀念論壇、紀念晚會等。我校亦投入了紀念活動的籌備、組織工作，本校校方代表、本中心老師、學生代表等多人參加了此次難得的盛會。本中心主任亦參加了「第二屆語文教育研討會」。

中心現任主任、助理教授梅真博士擔任過第十一屆全港普通話中心聯席會議輪值主席，在本校舉辦了第十一屆全港普通話中心聯席會議，並常常被邀請擔任香港大專普通話辯論賽的評委、香港大專生普通話朗誦比賽的評委，全港中小學普通話演講比賽評委、國際大學生「六角盃」辯論大賽評委、屯門區小學普通話比賽評委等。

現已成為校隊的香港珠海學院普通話辯論隊，一直以來也是由本中心主任擔任指導老師，帶領參加多屆全港普通話辯論賽，2016年12月，在梅真博士帶領下赴蘇州參加「蘇粵交流賽」，當時的隊長李卓群同學亦常在以上的比賽中獲得「最佳辯手」等獎項。

可以預見，在數年之後，本校的「普通話教學暨測試中心」，會帶給行將畢業的大、中學生，在求職及繼續深造時，能具備更有利的語言條件。使之在求職過程中，更為無往不利。

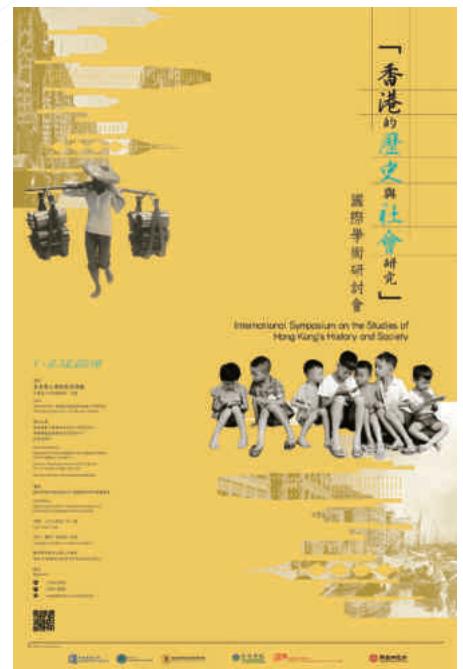

Centre for Hong Kong History and Culture Studies

齊心抗疫 疫境自強

2023年初，中港兩地終於走出新冠疫情陰霾，香港在3年來經歷了六波大規模爆發，面對嚴峻的形勢，學院迅速實施防控策略，在國貿教育的應援下，齊心協力為師生牢築健康防線。

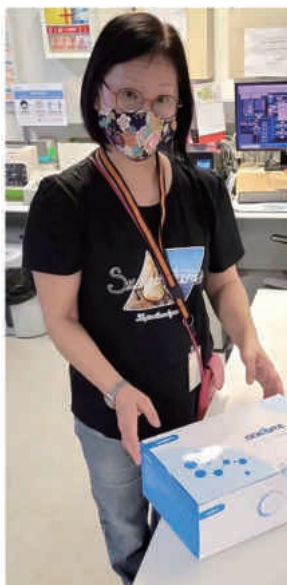

為減低染疫風險，學院於2022年初推行線上授課及教師居家辦公，廈門國貿資產運營集團董事長張運明更親自主持學院的疫情防控會議，及時了解學院的疫情動態，為師生提供必要的防疫物資保障。

由學院人力資源處、財務處、教務處、設施管理處、學生事務處及宿舍監察組成的抗疫領導小組，果斷落實多項預防性清潔消毒與社交距離舉措，並推行校園「疫苗通行證」，建立好免疫屏障。

為讓住校生能安心在校防疫和學習，學院舍監及團隊定期探訪住校生，向學生送上防疫物資，同時提供心理輔導，緩解他們的焦慮感，做好心理調適，「疫」境自強。自防疫舉措落實後，校園確診數穩步下降，病毒傳播得到遏制，為全面復課帶來有力保障。

1947年，珠海大學於廣州竹絲崗創立，1949年遷香港九龍旺角洗衣街，改稱珠海書院，1960年遷旺角亞皆老街。余於1970年代初，入讀珠海書院文史研究所，至1980年代畢業，距今四十餘年，其間之校園生活，猶歷歷在目，今雖年事日高，仍未忘懷。

最令余難忘者，為各位老師之循循善導。今仍未忘者，有梁永樂校長之講授中西近代史，李璜老師之講解西洋漢學，羅香林老師講述香港史及族譜學，陶公遂老師講述國學，黃韶生老師之講解漢書，宋晞老師講述宋史，蘇瑩輝老師講授敦煌學，林天蔚老師講授方志學，林子昇老師講授澳

門史，惜部分老師之大號，未能全記。余資質愚鈍，如無當年各老師之啟蒙，斷無今天之成就。

畢業後，余於母校任職，講授中西歷史，惟因受羅香林老師之影響，對華南及香港文化歷史，甚感興趣。故除講授中西歷史外，余於工餘間，常往深圳及新界各地，作田野考察，抄錄碑銘，拍照記錄，並與鄉村父老長者交談蒐集資料，歸家後以歷史文獻、地方志乘、族譜及碑銘資料，研究鄉村之發展，並為之撰文記錄，間將部份新界地區之歷史與傳統文化，輯集成書。

1992年，學校再遷荃灣海濱花園。至1997年，香港回歸祖國，香港歷史日被重視，為配合社會之需要，校方着余講授香港古代及近代歷史，其後增開香港歷史文化及古蹟與文物課程，每年且為同學舉辦香港及華南地方文化考察。2004年，學校改名珠海學院。

2010年，余獲校方之邀，得同事游子安及危丁明兩位博士之協助，成立「香港歷史文化研究中心」，公開舉辦香港歷史文化專題講座及野外考察，目的除於校內為學子介紹香港歷史外，並向社會人士推廣香港及華南之歷史與文化。

多年來，余獲學界友人之助，與香港歷史博物館合辦香港歷史文化專題講座及野外考察，並於2012年初出版年刊《鑪峰古今——香港歷史文化講座系列》。

並曾與社會文化團體合辦多次國際學術研討會，亦有邀請海外學者參與，會後且出版學術論文集。

2015年，學院遷入屯門舊咖啡灣新校舍。近年，港府推廣參與華南粵港澳大灣區發展，香港亦位區內，故校方於今年（2022年）開設華南歷史文化碩士課程，向社會人士推廣香港及華南之歷史與文化。

如今，余已逾退休之年，以往學校生活，仍未忘懷。今逢母校七十五週年誕辰，主事者囑余為文，記述往事，余特以上述為之誌，並祝母校昌隆，各新舊老師及校友身心愉快，身體健康。

I am grateful to be a member of Hong Kong Chu Hai College

I have joined the College for nearly 15 years. I enjoy the environment provided to the students. The College is small compared with many other universities. But small is beautiful. The college provides excellent environment to help build up close relationship between teachers and students. Small campus allows teachers to know individual students. We are happy to discuss with students inside and outside the classrooms.

Furthermore, the College puts the students on the first place. The College always encourages the teachers to focus on students. We are happy to observe the growth of every student. We fully understand that everyone has different strengths and weaknesses. We keep in mind that we need to help every student to discover his or her potentials and finds out the appropriate goals.

The greatness reward I get from the College is that I am able to observe the students to grow up in the College and develop their careers in the society. I am sure that the College will keep on the tradition of “students first” in the future!

When I first joined the College six years ago, I found that it was located in a beautiful environment. There were beaches facing directly in front of the College complex and we could watch planes taking on and off in the Hong Kong International Airport opposite the beaches. The library was located on the bridges linking the wings of the complex and elevated for far sight-seeing the nearby Lantau Island which had many hills, tall and small. That was a good place to relax after hard work.

Nothing changed much in the physical environment except the road work underway will probably make the College situated in a new transport hub in the region. That would be beneficial to all those around. High school student population, however, dropped over the years. Against this demographic change the College had progressed and developed new plans to attain university status in the foreseeable future. We are excited on this and more future developments of the College that will take it to a new height.

2024 marks the 75th anniversary of the founding of the Hong Kong Chu Hai College. It is a jubilant occasion but about what? The previous few years leading to 2024 were particularly difficult. The Coronavirus was in rage, and the ongoing geopolitics between the US and China are insane. Closer at home, the enrolment in the College is hovering in the low range. We are all looking forward to seeing the light at the end of the tunnel.

Thanks to the visions and guidance of the College senior administration, the three faculties which comprise the college have developed various innovative and market-driven taught postgraduate programmes in the previous few years and have attracted a significant number of aspiring and high-quality students. This is a vote of confidence in the College from our students and the intelligentsia-at-large.

For the faculty of business, under the guidance of the faculty dean and the hard works of department heads and the entire faculty members, two popular and well-received taught master programmes are approved and delivered. These would be platforms for future growth and there are so many contemporary challenges which businesses and corporations could play an instrumental role to tackle and from which to prosper. Opportunities abound.

At 75 years old, Hong Kong Chu Hai College shows no sign of slowing down. It feels like we are working in a young and upbeat start-up institution, always experimenting, innovating, improvising, forging new partnerships, and pushing the boundaries. We celebrate our proud tradition and past as well as our incessant close-knitted collective efforts to shape the bright future which awaits the College.

As the programme director of the MBAE at Hong Kong Chu Hai College, I feel a sense of happiness and pride when I stroll through our beautiful campus, interact with my dedicated colleagues, and witness the confidence and aspirations of our students. Our programme is one of the youngest master's programmes at the college, and our first cohort of students is on the verge of successfully completing their studies. Seeing their academic progress and their reluctance to part with teachers upon graduation, might as the ultimate reward for our efforts.

As the college celebrates its 75th anniversary, it is my wish that our MBAE program will continue to thrive alongside the college's ongoing success and contribute to its future growth and development.

Happy anniversary to Chu Hai!

The College's history of 75 years is a remarkable journey. I feel very fortunate to be a part of it since I joined the Department of Architecture in 2018.

The story of Chu Hai is a story of an educational institution that has been committed to provide quality education to students, regardless of the challenge. Mr. David Booth

Associate Professor
Department of Architecture

Congratulations to our college for its 75th anniversary. My own time since 2008, as a member of staff in the Architecture Department, has seen much momentous change and development, from the move from Tsuen Wan out to the new Campus, to the validation of the architecture Master's programme, some difficult years that also contained the 'covid' pandemic and the struggle to teach our students on-line. My own continued professional development has seen consultancy work in design, acoustics, and construction for a series of projects in a number of Hong Kong's leading schools. If asked for a future 'wish-list' I would say that the College needs 'In-Town' satellite premises; the current campus is admirable in scope, and extensive in its facilities, but travel and connectivity remain its 'Achilles heel' : a small and modestly equipped central teaching facility would be good for students, for teaching, and for attracting visiting specialists to contribute to our further advancement.

Dr. Kevin Yim

Associate Professor
Department of Architecture

Congratulations to Hong Kong Chu Hai College on its 75th anniversary! On this special occasion, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to the college for its invaluable contributions to the Department of Architecture.

Throughout the years, your unwavering support and encouragement have allowed our department to thrive and grow. We are immensely grateful for the opportunities you have provided us to train aspiring students and nurture their talents.

I am delighted to share that 13 graduates of our master's program, have obtained their architect licenses from the Hong Kong Institute of Architects in the past 2 years. This achievement stands as a testament to the exceptional education and guidance offered by the college.

Your dedication and support have transformed our department into a dynamic and respected institution, attracting passionate individuals and empowering them to shape the future of architecture.

As we celebrate this significant milestone, I extend my deepest appreciation to Hong Kong Chu Hai College for its profound impact on the Department of Architecture. Here's to another 75 years of excellence and continued success in shaping the architectural disciplines.

Dr. Ken Too

Assistant Professor
Department of Architecture

On the momentous occasion of the 75th anniversary of Hong Kong Chu Hai College, I am filled with immense pride and gratitude for being part of the institution's journey since 2008. As a member of the Department of Architecture, I have witnessed its growth into a recognized professional establishment. Our department now stands as one of the three accredited institutes for the registration of architects in Hong Kong.

This milestone is a testament to the dedication and hard work of our faculty, students, and colleagues, who have fostered a culture of excellence and innovation. As we celebrate our past accomplishments, I also look forward to the challenges ahead.

In the future, I hope to see the Department continue its upward trajectory, expanding its offerings with a more diverse range of Master's and High Diploma courses, emphasizing our professional prestige studies over general courses.

By doing so, we can nurture more students, equipping them with the skills and knowledge to build better environments for all. As we embark on this next chapter, I am confident that the Department of Architecture at Hong Kong Chu Hai College will remain at the forefront of architectural education, shaping the future of our country and beyond.

The department of computer science is one of the most important departments in any academic institution, as it is responsible for conducting research and education in the field of computer science. In recent years, there has been a significant increase in the demand for data science and artificial intelligence (AI) professionals, which has led to a surge in the development of these fields within computer science departments.

Looking into the future, it is expected that the department will continue to focus on the development of AI technology and Business Intelligence. This will involve the integration of data science and machine learning techniques into traditional computer science courses, as well as the development of new courses and programs that are specifically designed to train data scientists and AI professionals.

Overall, the future of computer science departments looks bright, with a continued focus on the development of AI, BI and Data Science. Under her supervision, various teams of students won several news reporting awards over the last five years, including the top prize for Best News Video Reporting and the third place for Best News Writing.

She acted as the CO-I for the QESS project of “Setting up a Digital Teaching and Learning Enhancement Platform”, starting from September 2015 till August 2017, and received a total grant of HK$1,743,510 from the Education Bureau of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region.

Carol completed her master’s degree in Electronic Communication and Publishing at University College London. Prior to joining HKCHC, she worked for a number of media organizations in Hong Kong and London, such as ATV and the BBC. She has experience working as a reporter, news translator, sub-editor and producer.

Dr. Tracy Lee

Associate Professor
Department of Journalism and Communication

I joined the Department of Journalism and Communication in 2009 and have since taken on the role of PI for two Quality Enhancement Support Scheme (QESS) projects. These projects received funding of nearly 4 million and have made significant contributions to the enhancement of teaching and learning quality at our college.

The first QESS project, “Setting up a Digital Teaching and Learning Enhancement Platform” (September 2015-August 2017), received a grant of HK$1,743,510 from the Education Bureau. We built a web-based platform (CHC online) for our department, which has enhanced teaching and learning in the area of digital reporting.

For the second QESS project, “Enhancing teaching and learning by effective utilization of free and open-source software” (September 2018-November 2020), we received a grant of HK$2,159,190 from the Education Bureau. The purpose of this project was to establish a community of practice to support teaching staff and students of our college, and possibly other self-financing postsecondary institutes in Hong Kong, to effectively utilize free and open source software (FOSS) to improve their digital literacy and enrich their teaching and learning experience, while simultaneously enhancing the quality of teaching and learning.

Knowledge exchange:

I had the opportunity to participate in a 16-day European study tour organized by the Journalism Education Foundation of Hong Kong from June 2 to 17, 2018. As one of the 19 members of the delegation, consisting mainly of local media practitioners and journalism teachers from other local universities, we visited over a dozen major media organizations in London, Paris, and Berlin. Our aim was to explore how media convergence has transformed the global media environment and the latest media development trends in these European countries. We also visited the Chinese Embassy in London, Paris, and Berlin, where we examined the bilateral development and cooperation between Mainland China and these countries. Additionally, we paid visits to the Hong Kong Economic and Trade Offices in London and Berlin to understand their roles in promoting Hong Kong’s economic and trade interests in the region.

Together with the program director, I also led our students from the Master of Arts in Global Communication program to participate in the one-week CNN Bootcamp at the CNN Academy in Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates from December 3 to 11, 2022. During the event, we supervised our students’ simulation practices, which resulted in three out of six teams composed of our students being selected as finalists. The study tour provided an intensive learning experience for our students, who attended masterclasses chaired by Becky Anderson, Managing Editor of CNN Abu Dhabi.

Dr. Lai Kam Wah

Associate Professor
Department of Accounting and Banking

This is a fruitful year for me in research. Four papers were published in this year. Altogether, I have published several papers in the past six years.

The first three papers contributed to our understanding about the Hong Kong market environment. The first of these investigated the penny stock delisting event and provided evidence to suggest that the delisting proposal triggered market panic which was widely suspected at that moment.

The second and third papers used the merger of Deloitte and its Guangan event to examine the audit market dynamics. They showed respectively that audit firm merger enhanced efficiency of audit and audit failure penalised auditors by lowering its audit fee income from continuing clients. The recent four papers examined the U.S. audit market. The paper on separation of audit services from tax services reported that the separation increased audit quality and supported regulators' concern that the joint provision of both services was undesirable. It is topical given the recent regulatory initiatives to require audit firms to spin off their consultancy services. The paper on different non-audit fees, on the other hand, supported the profession's claim that the joint provision enhanced efficiency of conducting audit.

The second last paper on auditor-client match found that audit market dynamics could enable auditors and clients to find the other suitable party. Hence, audit market forces could be relied upon. The latest paper on the relationship between client bankruptcy and a going-concern opinion operationalised the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board's audit quality indicator and suggested that auditors could provide higher quality audits when they were specialists, more conservative or less reliance on audit fee income.

6 It was a seminar co-organised by Department of Architecture to bring together scholars and practitioners in the field of urbanism, architecture, design and social work to assemble a cross-disciplinary dialogue that responds to the challenges brought about by urban renewal and social sustainability.

7 Scholarship on Chinese architectural history has explored the significant role of Catholicism in bringing western architecture and building technologies, drawing attention to the indigenisation of religious practices and churches as a contested site of Chineseness and Westernisation. One telling example is a prototype of catholic churches with a characteristic Chinese façade inspired by the Pailou, a gateway structure commemorating the esteemed in Confucian culture, common in southwest China during the late 19th and early 20th century. Building on a comprehensive survey on churches in Yunnan, Sichuan and Guizhou Provinces, this research examines how their evolving façades were shaped by the changing ideas of Chineseness and social progression in the late Qing era.

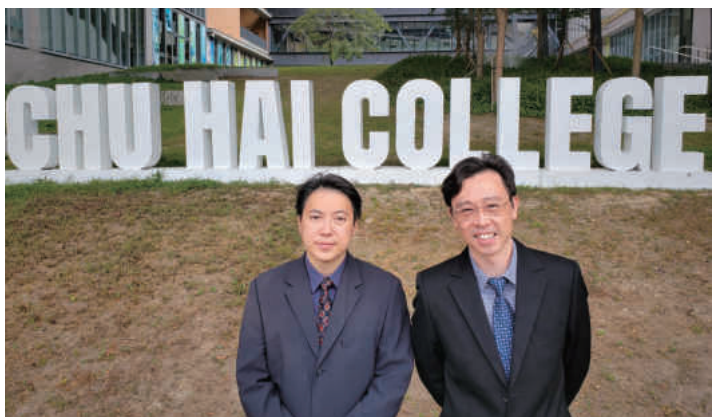

8 Workers' new villages are standardised socialist housing developed to support central economic plans and industrial development in Maoist China. Since the reform under Deng Xiaoping, these estates have been gradually replaced by a market model through extensive urban redevelopment. Shanghai, where the prototype of workers' new village was first developed in the early 1950s, has witnessed major transformations of the built environment and community life within these neighbourhoods in the past thirty years. This research examines the tensions in this shift from socialist collectivism to the "socialist market economy" in post-reform Shanghai, with a focus on the changing narratives and everyday spatial practices of the workers' new village.

9 To celebrate the achievements of Hong Kong's heritage conservation over the past decades, the Department of Architecture has collaborated with the Antiquities and Monuments Office (hereafter as "AMO") on a series of projects, including exhibitions, public talks, workshops, and guide tours focused on Hong Kong cultural heritage. The collaboration is rooted and developed from one of the Hong Kong Chu Hai B.Sc. (Hons.) Architecture programme core courses, entitled ARE401 Studies on Architectural History and Theory, taught by Dr. Ken TOO and Dr. Edwin WU, where historical buildings were selected as research objectives. The students have utilized supplementary learning methods such as digital and physical modelling to provide a comprehensive view of Chinese architectural aesthetics. The results are exciting and lead to deep thinking about our cultural sustainability. The outcome demonstrates the heartfelt love of Hong Kong's future architects for their home's cultural heritage, inspiring further contemplation on the theme of cultural sustainability.

Department of English

Gaspar Wong Ching Ho

Year-3 student of English for Professional Communication

I am Gaspar, a Year-3 student from the English Department. By joining last year's ICAC Ambassador Programme, we organized various online events for our fellow schoolmates.

Indeed, we encountered various challenges amid the rampant pandemic. We were not able to interact with the participants and ask for their feedback in person, but it was still a precious campaign for me to consolidate my event organizing skills. One of the most valuable activities is the clay modeling competition. Our schoolmates made lifelike clay models related to anti-corruption messages and promoted integrity in our Society. Then, they sent pictures of their fascinating artwork and shared with us their worthwhile messages.

Furthermore, I am responsible for working out the expenditure budget as the financial secretary of my team. By comparing and procuring materials from different channels, I grasped the significance of careful calculations between different currencies. Moreover, I formulated a strict budget and averted cost overruns.

All in all, I shared great moments with my groupmates in the 10 months of cooperation. We complemented one another's strengths and weaknesses. We ensured the smooth progress of every event. Serving as an ICAC ambassador is indeed fulfilling and has broadened my horizons.

MA Students Attend CNN Bootcamp in Abu Dhabi

Students of the Master of Arts in Global Communication program under the J&C Department, joined the one-week (from 5 to 9 December 2023) Bootcamp being held at CNN Academy in Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates. The tour was led by the Program Director, Professor Peter Kwan, and Dr. Tracy Lee, an associate professor of the Department.

This study tour is an intensive learning experience for our 21 students. They attended masterclasses chaired by Becky Anderson, Managing Editor of CNN Abu Dhabi and Anchor of Connect the World with Becky Anderson, who delivered valuable insights into the operations behind CNN's reporting from large-scale global events and the perspective of photojournalists, how they use various kit and operate in the field.

The students were also assigned into groups of 4 to 5 persons to participate in a newsroom simulation competition. They came from 28 different nationalities, including CNN Academy partnerships with Loyola University Seville of Spain, University of Nottingham Malaysia, University College Dublin of Ireland, and HongKong Chu Hai College along with those taking part in the latest CNN Academy Abu Dhabi. They then investigated and news gathered at a scene built on a film set at the twofour54 Kizad backlot where they interacted with CNN journalists playing the roles of eyewitnesses, activists and corporate representatives.

After deducing the story and best angles, the participants pitched a panel of senior CNN staff, replicating the interaction with editors in a newsroom. Out of the 18 groups participating in the competition, only 6 teams were selected as finalists and our students were among 3 of the teams.

This one-week boot camp has served as a wonderful out-of-the-classroom learning experience for all our MA students!

HKIE Civil Division Best Final Year Project Award 2021/22

Hong Kong Institution of Engineers (HKIE) Civil Division organised the Best Final Year Project Competition to recognise civil engineering undergraduates who have completed outstanding final year projects that may help promoting civil engineering advancement in the civil engineering industry. Each local tertiary educational institution with relevant educational programmes was allowed to nominate a maximum of 3 best final year projects to join the competition.

Nominees were required to attend an interview and a presentation for the selection process. The final awards were evaluated and selected by a judging panel formed by five Committee members of the Civil Division of HKIE to ensure the best entries were of a sufficiently high standard in terms of accuracy of technical aspects.

The Department of Civil Engineering nominated two students to participate in the Competition. Among a total of 20 competing projects, our student Mr. Qiu Guanwen was at the 7th place in the ranking. The title of his final-year project was “Application of Machine Learning in Predicting Sediment Dynamics in Terms of Turbidity, a Case Study in Lai Chi Wo Catchment, Hong Kong”. Another student, Ms. Zhang Yujia was at the 9th place. The title of her final-year project was “Characterising the Relationship between Rainfall Events and Landslides in Hong Kong”. Both students received the Merit Award in the prize-giving ceremony held on 9th August 2022 at the HKIE Headquarters.

Ms. Vivian Mo, IBM student 2022-23

In 2020, as a special expert of China International E-commerce Center, I started to deliver “Silk Road E-commerce” lectures on the cloud for the Belt and Road countries. During the period, I have found my professional knowledge like lacking systematization, and this awareness led me choose the Belt and Road program of Hong Kong Chu Hai College in the fall of 2022. In just ten months, the courses I took has enlightened me. Professional knowledge learning is full of challenges and opportunities, but thanks to professors’ respectful teaching, classmates’ friendly support and my own efforts to improve and become a better version of myself. I am very honored to participate in the 10th anniversary forum of the Belt and Road Initiative in Hong Kong on 14 April 2023. I look forward to using my learned professional knowledge to share with people Belt and Road countries and tell the Chinese story in the coming decades.

珠海中文系的課程架構完備，以中文為主，史哲為輔的教學特色，能夠全面且紮實地培養學生專業學識。以我修讀的「中國文學」課程為例，既注重古典文學的講授，開設如歷代文選、詩選及習作和詞曲選及習作等，同時提供多種現代文學及創作科目作為選修，可謂推陳出新。只有建立厚實的古代文學根基方能有良好的現代創作，修讀這些科目不僅可以獲得文學知識，還能教會我們識人情明事理，追尋高山仰止的品德，在學無止境的人生，得以更臻完善。

珠海中文系的課程，為我求學之路打好穩固的基礎。課程結構完備是其一大特色，我修讀的「文藝創作」課程主要研讀現當代文學，亦可實踐創作。同時，我亦可修讀或旁聽「中國文學」課程的古典文學科目，在校及畢業後，曾因此獲得全港詩詞創作比賽等獎項，這全賴老師的指導及同學的砥礪。疫情以來，授課轉為網上形式，諸位老師仍然非常用心教學。珠海的師生關係密切，老師因材施教，傳授知識之餘，亦教導了不少人生道理。

Hong Kong Chu Hai College provided me with ample space and resources for my study and growth made me really grateful. The enthusiasm of professors in teaching and looking for the potential of students also made me deeply appreciate it. The care of the professors of the College also made me thankful.

Seven years of life at Chu Hai College has benefited me a lot. What I gained and learned will benefit me throughout my future life. Also, it had established a solid foundation for my future career. I hope that Chu Hai College can continue to educate every generation so that the tradition and the spirit of Chu Hai College can be passed without end.

Hong Kong Chu Hai College's architecture program has been instrumental in shaping the careers of many alumni, including mine. As a graduate of the program, I can attest to the unique learning experience that the college offers.

The architecture program offers a solid professional knowledge that prepares students for real-life practice and helps them become Registered Architects. The training provided by the program is tailored to meet the demands of the industry, which is evident from the success of many alumni.

I am proud to have passed the professional exam in the last few years and currently working in a local active architectural design consultancy firm as a Registered Architect. This would not have been possible without the education and training that I received at Chu Hai College.

As Chu Hai College celebrates its 75th anniversary, it is a testament to its commitment to providing quality education and preparing students for the future. I am grateful for the opportunities and experiences that the college has provided me and wish the college continued success in the future.

Looking back as a chartered architect, I treasure a lot the moments I spent in Hong Kong Chu Hai College. The College provides an all rounded education of architectural knowledge, from the artistic aspect to the practical basis. During the research thesis, the College allows a great extent of academic autonomy, and yet at the same time provides their greatest support in guidance, which my final research work would not be successful without them.

The memories with my fellow classmates are also the precious moments I could not treasure more. The two-year study of the Master's Degree would never be easy without the joy and fun we shared in and out of the studio.

The College also nurtures a strong bonding among students and teachers, even after we graduated. In the times of up and down in our career paths, teachers are so willing to give their generous help. I feel thankful for being part of the HKCHC community, and I anticipate this community to grow bigger and stronger in the future.

I had the privilege of studying architecture at Hong Kong Chu Hai College for my degree and master degree. What I found most striking about Chu Hai College was the close relationship between professors and students. The professors were not only knowledgeable but also approachable and supportive, always willing to lend a helping hand. This created a warm and nurturing learning environment that allowed me to thrive and grow as a student.

One of the highlights of my time at Chu Hai College was the exchange program to Belgium. This program allowed me to study architecture abroad and gain a deeper understanding of the global context of architecture. It was an unforgettable experience that broadened my horizons and enriched my education.

Overall, I have nothing but happy memories of Chu Hai College and am grateful to the college and its professors for providing me with an outstanding education. Thank you, Chu Hai College, and all the professors who contributed to my success!

One Belt One Road Research Institute 一帶一路研究所

Joseph Chan

Graduated in academic year 2020-21

I graduated with a Master of Social Science in International Relations for Belt and Road Countries in its inauguration year in 2020.

I have been an active Belt & Road investor and operator since it was initiated by President Xi Jinping in 2013. When I learned from Professor Thomas Chan that Hong Kong Chu Hai College was to offer the world's first ever Belt & Road centric programme I enrolled to it to enhance my work knowledge. I had intended to do it on a 2 year part time basis but the covid pandemic which locked down the world including Hong Kong however enabled me to complete the course in a full time one year basis instead given all my businesses were on a standstill. All the lecturing took place on virtual basis which was something new to me and probably to all my fellows and lecturers.

The compulsory and elective courses in the programme were wide and embracing. We could learn about the Middle East and its oil politics; Pakistan and her ports development; relationship of Russia, Eastern Europe and their western neighbours. More interestingly was that the teaching faculty was majority lead by non Anglo-Saxon professors from Ukraine, Pakistan and this year even an Iranian academic joined providing students with a different perspective on Belt & Road. This made Hong Kong Chu Hai College standing out as a "reformer" in the tertiary education in Hong Kong.

I recommend this Masters programme to anyone that shares the value of Belt & Road development. Last but not least my son graduated on the same year with me which is probably iconic to Hong Kong Chu Hai College.

● Future Outlook ●

Hong Kong Chu Hai College is currently exerting its best effort to elevate itself to the status of a university by 2025-2026. To achieve this goal, the college prioritizes improving the quality of its faculty and enhancing its international academic reputation. The college aims to attract top talents from various fields to provide the best possible learning experience for its students. Additionally, the college is focused on elevating its research capabilities to world-class levels in key areas, which is a crucial component of its development strategy. In pursuit of this goal, the college is actively recruiting top scholars from diverse fields to join the team and enhance its overall international competitiveness and quality.

Another important aspect of the college's development plan is to promote international outreach and strategic partnerships with global institutions, which will help to enhance its international influence. Hong Kong Chu Hai College is establishing contacts and partnerships around the world, providing students with more international exchange opportunities, as well as bringing potential opportunities to the college itself.

Hong Kong Chu Hai College is also committed to collaborating with the community through creativity, passion, and dedication, and taking on the social responsibility of a university. It aims to contribute to the “Greater Bay Area” and the “Belt and Road” strategies by expanding cooperation with local industries and institutions in both Hong Kong and mainland China. The college is actively seeking to attract more students from mainland China and other international regions to create a diverse, inclusive, and international learning environment. Additionally, the college is striving to become an excellent higher education institution in areas such as governance and management, finance and sustainability, and quality assurance, with the ultimate goal of being recognized as a vigorous university.

After 75 years of ups and downs, we firmly believe that with its rich cultural heritage, vast international perspectives, and strong commitment to innovative development, Hong Kong Chu Hai College will become a renowned private university and make significant contributions to the advancement of human knowledge and societal development.
